

Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request

A Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request is a request for LenderFi to research an error or dispute regarding the servicing of your mortgage, or to request information or documentation regarding your mortgage.

Under federal law, a residential mortgage loan borrower has the right to submit a written Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request to the servicer of their mortgage loan. The servicer is required to acknowledge receipt of the inquiry, research, and respond to the written inquiry.

To submit your inquiry to LenderFi, Inc.

- Provide the borrower's name.
- Provide the account number.
- Describe the specific error that you believe has occurred during the servicing of your mortgage loan or describe the specific information that you are seeking.
- Do not write your request or claim on your payment coupon.
- Do not submit your monthly mortgage payment to the designated address.
- You must send your inquiry in writing to the following designated address:

LenderFi, Inc.
ATTN: Servicing Request
528 Palisades Dr, Ste 520
Pacific Palisades, CA 90272

If your loan account is involved in an active Bankruptcy, Collections or Foreclosure legal proceeding and you are intending to send a Notice of Error, Request for Information or Qualified Written Request, it must be sent to the designated address appearing above. Do not send such correspondence to the law firm representing CitiMortgage in the legal proceeding.
